Adult Code of Conduct

Club Finances

All players are expected to pay a £15 fee on registering to represent F UFC for the 2012/2013 season. The fee ensures affiliation to a league, registration to cup competitions, kit and resource maintenance and player insurance for the duration of the season, including pre-season.

Players will be charged £5 weekly for representing F UFC for 45 minutes or more per match. It is at the manager discretion as to how much players playing less than 45 minutes will pay. If a player is dismissed they will still be expected to pay the full match fee.

No payment Rules

1st match of no payment - The manager will remind you that payment is due and ask you to ensure that your entire club account is updated by the following match.

2nd match of no payment - You will receive a formal letter from the manager and treasurer informing you that you will be suspended until payment has been received. All suspensions can be appealed.

Any player who receives a suspension as a result of being cautioned by a match official will be expected to pay the cost in its entirety and any additional administration fees that occur. Due to a change in charges, please expect all cautions to increase from £10 to £12 and red cards to £27.

Health & Safety

Training - It is the responsibility of the player to ensure they are appropriately dressed for training. All players are not to wear dangerous jewellery. All players must wear shin pads during competitive activity. If a player does not adhere to such rules, they will not be able to take part and will invalidate Club insurance.
