

Farcet United FC

Mission Statement

To provide a safe and secure environment for players of all ages and backgrounds to express their footballing skills, whilst remaining the hub of the community.

Social Networking Policy

Farcet United is fully committed to the welfare and well-being of all of its members. The Club deems it necessary to clarify its stance on the use of social media in regards to the Club.

The Club will take action against members who misuse social media in a Club context. Cyber bullying is rife in society and the Club is keen to be a pro-active to avoid any member feeling intimidated, threatened, abused or hurt by the actions of others. Therefore, if Farcet United becomes aware of any of its members doing any of the following, the Clubs committee will launch an investigation and act accordingly.

- Make comments that are indecent, insulting or threatening about Club members.
- Commenting on match officials, leading to the reader questioning the integrity or ability of the person(s) personal or otherwise. For example implying that a referee is bias.
- Comments which include a reference to a person(s) ethnic origin, colour, race, nationality, faith, gender, sexual orientation, or disability that may be considered derogatory.
- Re-tweeting another person's comments that may cause offence.

Please note that although submitting an apology for a person's actions online is admirable, it will not influence the committee's disciplinary actions.

Any misuse of Social Networking should be reported to David French (adult) or Andy Cooper (children or Under 18). Farcet United will only act upon information that is directly about the Football Club and/or an event, fixture or meeting held by the Club. This policy is in place to protect members during their time with the Club, and not to pass judgement of member's personal use of social media.

All members should have seen this document and adhere to its content by signing the Clubs Code of Condukt.

